LOVING YOURSELF IS NOT A SIN!

Did you know that everything that comes into contact with the skin and is smaller than our pores can enter the bloodstream? When focusing on the underarm area, it's crucial to carefully choose the deodorant we use. Conventional chemical deodorants may contain hazardous forms of aluminum, petroleum derivatives, and synthetic fragrances that penetrate the body through the pores and accumulate in our lymphatic system. The consequence of long-term accumulation of toxic substances in the body can lead to lymph node swelling or even a general disruption of the immune system.

Organic deodorants can reliably protect you from unpleasant odors while simultaneously caring for your skin protecting your health.

TOUCH OF LAVENDER

LEVANDULOVÝ DOTEK

Throughout ancient times, the beneficial and regenerative effects of lavender were known across the world.

It was also one of the most expensive herbs used in crafting the most luxurious perfumes. The cream nourishes the skin, provides a protective barrier, and leaves your hands silky smooth and hydrated.

VENUŠE INTIMATE SERUM

The birth of Venus. Did you know that your intimate parts have the thinnest skin on your body?

That's also why they're more sensitive. In these areas, the ingredients contained in cosmetics have a quicker and simpler ability to be absorbed directly into the skin and subsequently into the bloodstream. When you apply body oil or lotion after a bath or shower, how many times have you wondered if they're safe for your intimate areas? Our priority was to create a serum with the purest organic composition, suitable for intimate areas, reducing signs of aging, hydrating with a non-sticky, and non-greasy texture. Additionally, it should have a naturally beautiful scent without the use of synthetic perfumes, acting as an aphrodisiac. And so, the new Venus Intimate Serum was born. The gentlest serum containing organic flower oils, hyaluronic acid, and active ingredients for hydrating, firming, and stimulating pheromone production."

WHAT ARE ORGANIC COSMETICS

Organic cosmetics, also known as bio cosmetics, are not something new to humanity. Ingredients such as honey, beeswax, and natural oils have been the basis of skincare since ancient Egypt. Until the 20th century, the use of natural ingredients for skincare was completely natural, and synthetic replacements for nature came with the industrial revolution.

The primary difference between organic cosmetics and conventional cosmetics lies in the prohibited ingredients. In organic cosmetics, it is forbidden to use substances that are harmful to the body. Anything that comes into contact with the skin and is smaller than the pores can penetrate directly into the bloodstream. This principle is exemplified by nicotine patches or contraceptive patches. The reasons for using organic cosmetics are the same as the reasons for consuming healthy and fresh food. The substances that the body absorbs are stored in the body and can either benefit or harm it. A tomato without pesticides from your grandmother's garden will always have different nutritional value and health benefits than ketchup from a supermarket. If we consistently absorb toxic substances through our skin, they accumulate in the body and can cause various health complications. Taking care of your body's skin with organic products is just as important as getting vegetables from a farmer.

MISSION

Apoteka brings us products that connect us with the purest beauty of nature. (Apoteka) The combination of modern science, organic ingredients, uncompromising, time-tested recipes and the ancient history of herbs that have had known healing properties since ancient times.

ABOUT APOTÉKA

It all started in 2014 in founder Zuzana Krejčí's kitchen, with a single product that was expected to fail. However, that has changed and grown to include a whole range of skincare, haircare, bodycare and soulcare that is now starting to be sold not only in the Czech Republic and Slovakia, but all over the world. The tradition of our products, the unaltered scents of nature that are not overpowered by perfumery and the uncompromising organic ingredients - bring you into a world where scientifically proven organic quality ingredients combined with the most potent ingredients from nature allow our skin cells to receive the nutrients they need and transform them into their most potent form. Apoteka's legacy of ancient recipes and scientifically proven ingredients are what make it a truly unique experience.

THE PUREST ORGANIC PRODUCTS

When using cosmetics, we should keep in mind that what is smaller than the pores and comes into contact with the skin penetrates it and enters the bloodstream of our body. So we have to be very careful about what we put on our skin. Our skin deserves the purest and organic products of the highest organic quality, just as it deserves to be shown love, tenderness and care every day. Our cosmetics are not to be used with the assumption that our skin and complexion will be beautiful, but as it a big step in learning about care and gaining self-love. That's why we always give you an affirmation card as a gift, so you don't forget to love yourself more.

INSPIRATION

Inspired by the nature and the purity of the past. Apoteka seeks out the best organic ingredients and recipes that have a long tradition and proven efficacy. Havlíkův přírodní zázrak was our first product and recipes like it date back to ancient Egypt, where bee products and oils were part of the most popular beauty rituals. The Elixir of youth and beauty is said to have been first produced by the daughter of an alchemist in 16th century Italy. The recipe combines precious oils and substances that had almost miraculous effects on women of that time. The production process involved placing the Elixir in the ground for 3 months, where it drew on the strength of trees for skin strength and life-giving water for moisture. Angelic face cream is inspired by a recipe from an 18th century Roman apothecary.

QUALITY

Our products are purely organic. We place uncompromising emphasis on the ingredients and their quality that we use in the production of our cosmetics. We grow local herbs ourselves in our eco-gardens in Chábovice, and we source exotic ones (which do not grow in our climate) from certified suppliers in the highest possible quality. We also use organic bee products from the Marada apiary, which rents the habitat of its bees in forests belonging to the Lichtenstein family.

INGREDIENTS

In order to guarantee the most suitable and purest raw materials, we make sure that the timing of harvest for processing is correct. Each herb and plant has its own ideal time for harvesting, when it has the most potent effects. Extraction is started immediately after harvesting, when the herb is at its juiciest and has the highest concentration of active ingredients, and all of its essence is preserved in the extract.

PHILOSOPHY

Nature harbours immense healing power and its power is found in every bit of nature that surrounds us. We women have a lot in common with herbs. Our beauty lies in our fragility and tenderness, but we are strong and can cope with even the most difficult situations. When we show love to herbs, they return it in the form of beauty and health. When we show love to women, they reciprocate with love and care. We draw from pure nature, respect it, and try to learn everything we can from it when making our beauty products. Our products are made with love and respect for nature.

INTIMATE SERUM

LOVING YOURSELF IS NOT A SIN

The most precious and fastest-aging part of your body. The desire for eternal youth and freshness is as ancient as humanity itself. Our daily routine includes several steps towards perfect skin and smooth complexion. But, is there one area that we often forget or don't know how to take care of?

The history of intimate care comes from the Eastern Asia region, specifically from Japan. Geishas extensively applied honey infused with various floral and fruity essences to their intimate areas to enhance freshness and attract men to taste it. It is no coincidence that the rose is called the flower of love. Why take care of intimate areas? Reduce susceptibility to various diseases and stay "forever moist." Intimate areas, just like the eye area and lips, have the most sensitive and thinnest skin on the body. Unlike normal skin on the body, which has an average of 16 layers, these areas only have a few layers of skin. The sensitivity of intimate areas can be caused by unsuitable underwear, tight pants, or intimate cosmetics containing chemical sulfates, synthetic fragrances, and parabens, which can accelerate skin aging and drying by irreversibly accumulating in the body. Maintaining the proper pH in this area, ideally around 3.8-4.5 pH, is crucial for a healthy microflora. The production of elastin and collagen starts to decline as early as the age of 25, and the body naturally ages, including the intimate area. Intimate areas age similarly to the eye area. Therefore, if you notice fine lines in this area, it's time to incorporate an intimate serum. The serum is suitable for ladies over 40 and during menopause. It can relieve feelings of dryness, excessive sensitivity, or chronic irritation.

Evening Primrose Oil is nicknamed the "women's oil" due to its beneficial effects on the female body. It promotes the restoration of the protective hydro-lipid film and restores skin elasticity. Chamomile has very moisturizing effects that soothe and prevent inflammation. It stimulates skin renewal processes and accelerates wound healing. It reduces redness and alleviates the sensation of itching and burning.

Essential pheromones are primarily produced in the intimate area. Our bodies naturally produce these chemical substances to attract the opposite sex. They signal femininity, youth, fertility, and stimulate certain areas of the brain related to overall sexual attractiveness and desire. Decreased production of pheromones reduces sexual attractiveness. Therefore, the serum can also be used for intimate moments with a partner to enhance overall pleasure.

A beautiful scent and strong aphrodisiac:

The Venus Intimate Serum from Organická Apoteka is the gentlest serum containing organic oils, lactobacilli, and hyaluronic acid. It promotes overall rejuvenation, moisturization, firmness, and pheromone production.

DAMASK ROSE is an eternal symbol of the most beautiful Greek goddess Aphrodite. The scent of this rose is very feminine and captivating. It acts on our senses as an aphrodisiac, calms the mind, and has strong antimicrobial, antiviral, and anti-inflammatory effects.

VANILLA itself induces feelings of well-being, relieves mental tension, and increases erotic attraction. In the past, it was an extremely rare ingredient in Europe, used in love potions and intimate moments. It contains a high amount of antioxidants and stimulates natural cell regeneration.

WHITE LOTUS has cleansing and soothing effects. Its gentle floral scent pleases all our senses. It is one of the key ingredients that gives the serum its pleasant and natural scent.

HAVLÍKŮV VYHLAZUJÍCÍ TĚLOVÝ OLEJ

Are you bothered by small or even big dimples on your thighs? Do you want to return a youthful and seductive appearance to your décolletage? The clinically proven active ingredient RonaCare® Poppy SE is the core ingredient in our firming body oil. After application, the lipolysis process is activated and the skin becomes firmer and smoother. After application we recommend you do a few squats and lightly pinch your skin.

We are as old AS WE FEEL.

A revolutionary product that has become synonymous with the fight against skin aging. Perhaps when you look in the mirror, you realize that time inexorably passes and your skin reveals signs of aging. However, do not despair! Our Elixir of Youth and beauty can help you regain a youthful appearance and slow down the aging process of your skin. Regular use of the Elixir will provide your skin with nourishment, hydration, and the substances necessary for its active regeneration. Your skin will receive the best to allow you to age with grace.

The skin is composed of three layers: the epidermis, dermis, and subcutaneous layers. Each of these layers influences the overall appearance of the skin, and each of them changes with age. Skin aging begins after the age of 25, when it is necessary to start intensive care tailored to your skin type.

The epidermis, also known as the skin, is composed of several layers of squamous epithelial tissue. The cellular renewal of this part slows down with age, and at the same time, the production of lipids on the skin's surface decreases, leading to increased susceptibility to dehydration and thickening. The skin becomes less resistant to stress and all external influences to which it is exposed, and its protective barrier function is compromised.

The dermis, also known as the true skin, provides firmness to the skin. With age, there is a decrease in collagen and elastin, leading to the disruption of the skin's structural integrity. The network of collagen fibers becomes thinner and less firm, resulting in sagging skin with gradually deepening wrinkles. It is necessary to prevent the degradation of collagen and elastin and provide skin cells with the energy to strengthen synthesis and create new collagen and elastin.

In the subcutaneous layers, the size of fat cells changes most noticeably with age. This leads to a loss of volume and the formation of deep wrinkles. Genetic factors inherited from ancestors cannot be influenced. However, external factors such as UV radiation, smog, exhaust gases, and electronic pollution, which together constitute a dangerous burden, can be minimized through proper skin care using natural products containing bio ingredients.

ACTIVE INGREDIENTS:

Juvinity™ supports the production of hyaluronic acid, which decreases in the skin with age, leading to hydration loss. It also fights collagen degradation, which ensures skin elasticity. The result is restructured skin, where existing wrinkles are less noticeable and emerging ones are shallower.

RonaCare® Poppy SE restores skin firmness and elasticity. Due to its composition suitable for sensitive skin, it has the same effects on the eye area.

Royal jelly is among the most perfect nourishments for tissues and skin. It supports immediate cellular regeneration.

Propolis helps in caring for skin with atopic eczema, psoriasis, and acne. It has antibacterial and antibiotic effects, counters the negative effects of UV radiation on the skin, and has highly antioxidant properties. It contains flavonoids, phenolic acids, amino acids, minerals, biotin, and Vitamins B1, B2, B3.

Honey is a valuable product from honeybees and has antiseptic effects. It acts as a natural peel, helping to remove dead skin cells. It also has antibacterial and disinfectant properties.

Argan oil is cold-pressed oil from the fruits of the argan tree. It hydrates and nourishes the skin, helps with conditions like eczema, psoriasis, and acne. It contains Vitamin E, coenzyme Q10, omega 6 and 9 fatty acids.

Avocado oil is cold-pressed oil from ripe avocado pulp. It has a high content of omega-3 fatty acids and monounsaturated fatty acids, especially oleic acid. It contains vitamins C, E, B group, sterols, and minerals like potassium, magnesium, and phosphorus.

Macadamia oil is cold-pressed oil from macadamia nuts. Due to its composition, which is very similar to human skin sebum, it provides optimal nourishment and maintains cellular vitality. Its high Vitamin E content protects skin cells from oxidative stress. Grape seed oil is cold-pressed from grape seeds, rich in natural antioxidants, Vitamin E, and fatty acids, particularly linoleic acid. It is easily absorbed. Tocopherol (Vitamin E) protects cells from stress and the negative effects of free radicals.

FOR MEN

Men's skin has different care requirements than female skin. Although each person skin is unique, it can generally be said that men's skin is thicker, oilier and ages more slowly.

The skin is protected from external influences by a lipid barrier, but once it is disturbed by an external stressor (for example, bad choice of cosmetics, air conditioning, dry air or frost), it loses moisture. If dry skin is not treated with a suitable product, dryness can progress deeper into the skin, and it loses elasticity, vitality and softness. It becomes coarse and tight and may itch uncomfortably. To keep the skin healthy and happy, it is advisable to choose a product developed specifically for the needs of men's skin, which has a high protective function while restoring and maintaining optimal hydration in the skin.
